The PCC decided have decided to replace and improve the lighting in the Church Hall. This is because the lighting tubes are becoming unavailable and the fact that LED lighting will significantly reduce our electricity bills and provide better lighting. If you want facts on this John Northall is our man! The work will take place in the week starting 27th November and the hall will not be available on the Monday, Wednesday or Friday of that week.

Today's Mass

Opening Prayer

O God, who alone can probe the depths of the heart, you hear the prayer of the humble and justify the repentant sinner.

As we stand before you, grant us the gift of humility, that we may see our own sins clearly and refrain from judging our neighbour. We make our prayer.

First Reading – Ecclesiasticus 35: 15-17, 20-22

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages.

He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man, he listens to the plea of the injured party.

He does not ignore the orphan's supplication,
nor the widow's as she pours out her story.

The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted,
his petitions will carry to the clouds.

The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds,
until it arrives he is inconsolable,

And the Lord will not be slow,
nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 33: 2-3,17-19,23

R, The poor man called; the Lord has heard him.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad. R,

The Lord turns his face against the wicked
to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The just call and the Lord hears
and rescues them in all their distress. R,

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save.

The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. R,

Second Reading – 2 Timothy 4: 6 -8, 16 -18

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.

The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever.

Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! The Word became flesh and dwelt among us; to all who received him, he gave power to become children of God. Alleluia!

Gospel – Luke 18: 9 -14

Hear the holy gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else: 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.' 'night even when he delays to help them? I promise you, he will see justice done to them, and done speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find any faith on earth?'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ

The boiler has yet again failed and will have to have its burners replaced at a cost of £2,000. This has not led us to an easy decision but we have had to agree to the repair and now need to look seriously into providing a new boiler and overhauled heating system.

Sadly this Sunday the replacements Parts have not been installed. The 8.30am Low Mass and the Family Mass will be in Hall. The Baptism will be in Church wrap up warm. Any problems next week and we will be again cosy in the Hall.

Grocery Sunday: This Sunday we start our collection of items for the Christmass Fayre - 30th October is for Grocery Items and please remember John Dutfields appeal for his wine and water stall. He is seeking bottles of wine not water!

FRAUD AWARENESS: Representatives from Barclay's Bank will be giving a presentation on Tuesday 25th October at 2.00pm in the Hall to help us to stay safe and be aware of the fraudsters who will try and trick out of our savings. Let us know if you are going to attend. All are welcome - to help with numbers there's a list to sign up on but not essential.
