Today's Mass

Opening Prayer:

Lord Jesus Christ, you gave us the Eucharist as the memorial of your suffering and death. May our worship of this sacrament of your body and blood help us to experience the salvation you won for us and the peace of the kingdom where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

First Reading: Deuteronomy 8: 2-3.14-16

Val Gaskill

Theme: He fed you with manna which neither you nor your fathers had known.

Moses said to the people: Remember how the Lord your God led you for forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, to test you and know your inmost heart - whether you would keep his commandments or not. He humbled you, he made you feel hunger, he fed you with manna which neither you nor your fathers had known, to make you understand that man does not live on bread alone but that man lives on everything that comes from the mouth of the Lord.

Do not then forget the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; who guided you through this vast and dreadful wilderness, a land of fiery serpents, scorpions, thirst; who in this waterless place brought you water from the hardest rock; who in this wilderness fed you with manna that your fathers had not known.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm: 147: 13-21

Anthony Lovesy

Response: Praise the Lord, Jerusalem

O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!

Zion, praise your God!

He has strengthened the bars of your gates

he has blessed the children within you. R.

He established peace on your borders,

he feeds you with finest wheat.

He sends out his word to the earth and swiftly runs his command. R.

He makes his word known to Jacob,

to Israel his laws and decrees.

He has not dealt thus with other nations;

he has not taught them his decrees. R.

Second Reading: 1Corinthians 10:16-17

Sue Aston

Theme: That there is only one loaf means that, though there are many of us, we form a single body.

The blessing-cup that we bless is a communion with the blood of Christ, and the bread that we break is a communion with the body of Christ. The fact that there is only one loaf means that, though there are many of us, we form a single body because we all have a share in this one loaf.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, says the Lord. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel: St John 5: 51-58

Theme: My flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

Hear the holy gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to St John

Glory to you, O Lord

Jesus said to the Jews:

'I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'

Then the Jews started arguing with one another: 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' they said. Jesus replied:

'I tell you most solemnly, if you do not eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you will not have life in you. Anyone who does eat my flesh and drink my blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is real food and my blood is real drink. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me and I live in him. As I, who am sent by the living Father, myself draw life from the Father, so whoever eats me will draw life from me. This is the bread come down from heaven; not like the bread our ancestors ate: they are dead, but anyone who eats this bread will live for ever.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Dennis Jackson: I received the news on Monday morning that Dennis Jackson had passed away in the early hours. Denis has been suffering from dementia for a number of years and always somehow kept his wonderful sense of humour and his love of singing. The longest serving member of our church choir, Dennis has also sung for local Men's Choirs and Dudley Choral Society throughout his life. Please pray for Eunice and their "boys" Neil & Bruce and their families. I will publish the details as they become known. "May he rest in peace and rise in glory". The Funeral has been arranged for Thursday 29th June at 1.30pm in Church

Social Club: Saturday 28 July at 8.00pm. Country and Western Evening Tickets £6.00 each including refreshments available from Carol and John Wardell 01902 671710 or 07770976817
