Today's Mass

Collect

God our Father, from living stones, your chosen people, you built an eternal temple to your glory. Increase the spiritual gifts you have given to your Church, so that your faithful people may continue to grow into the new and eternal Jerusalem. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

First reading: Ezekiel 47: 1-2,8-9,12

Sue Aston

The angel brought me to the entrance of the Temple, where a stream came out from under the Temple threshold and flowed eastwards, since the Temple faced east. The water flowed from under the right side of the Temple, south of the altar. He took me out by the north gate and led me right round outside as far as the outer east gate where the water flowed out on the right-hand side. He said, 'This water flows east down to the Arabah and to the sea; and flowing into the sea it makes its waters wholesome. Wherever the river flows, all living creatures teeming in it will live. Fish will be very plentiful, for wherever the water goes it brings health, and life teems wherever the river flows. Along the river, on either bank, will grow every kind of fruit tree with leaves that never wither and fruit that never fails; they will bear new fruit every month, because this water comes from the sanctuary. And their fruit will be good to eat and the leaves medicinal.'

Responsorial Psalm: 45:2-3,5-6,8-9

Chris Parker

R. The waters of a river give joy to God's city, the holy place where the Most High dwells.

God is for us a refuge and strength,
a helper close at hand, in time of distress,
so we shall not fear though the earth should rock,
though the mountains fall into the depths of the sea. R.

The waters of a river give joy to God's city,
the holy place where the Most High dwells.
God is within, it cannot be shaken;
God will help it at the dawning of the day. R.

The Lord of hosts is with us:
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
Come, consider the works of the Lord,
the redoubtable deeds he has done on the earth. R.

Second reading: 1 Corinthians 3:9-11,16-17

Roger Morgan

You are God's building. By the grace God gave me, I succeeded as an architect and laid the foundations, on which someone else is doing the building. Everyone doing the building must work carefully. For the foundation, nobody can lay any other than the one which has already been laid, that is Jesus Christ. Didn't you realise that you were God's temple and that the Spirit of God was living among you? If anybody should destroy the temple of God, God will destroy him, because the temple of God is sacred; and you are that temple.

Gospel Acclamation: 2 Ch 7: 16

Alleluia, alleluia! I have chosen and consecrated this house, says the Lord, for my name to be there forever. Alleluia!

Gospel: St John 2: 13-22

Hear the holy gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: Glory to you, O Lord

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money changers' coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father's house into a market.' Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?' Jesus answered, 'Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ

The boiler has yet again failed and will have to have its burners replaced at a cost of £2,000. This has not led us to an easy decision but we have had to agree to the repair and now need to look seriously into providing a new boiler and overhauled heating system.

Sadly this Sunday the replacements Parts have not been installed. The 8.30am Low Mass and the Family Mass will be in Hall. ~~The Baptism will be in Church wrap up warm.~~ Any problems next week and we will be again cosy in the Hall.

Grocery Sunday: This Sunday 30th October is for Grocery Items for our Christmass Fayre. John Dutfields thanks everyone appeal for their donations of wine. He has now enough for his stall.

FRAUD AWARENESS: Representatives from Barclay's Bank will be gave a presentation on Tuesday to help us to stay safe and be aware of the fraudsters who will try and trick out of our savings. We can repeat this in the future if anyone would like to attend.

List for All Souls' are at the Back of Church This Morning

The Magazine is available on Sunday

Important event on 26th November - please make sure you have a flyer for this with your Service Sheet or Bulletin this Sunday.
